Board of Education and Administration

Mr. Stewart Smith is the Superintendent of School District 2CJ and is our chief administrative officer. Mr. Smith, in his second year in the district, has a BA and an ME degree from the University of Montana. He has also done work at Wayne University, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State University.

Mr. John Wahl is the Principal of Pacific High School. His many duties all concern themselves with making our school operate smoothly. Mr. Wahl has a Bachelor's degree from St. Johns University, Collegeville, Minnesota, and a Master's degree from the University of Washington.

"Let's see. This comes to just over $10,000,000.00," says Mrs. Hunt, secretary of District 2CJ.

Mrs. Slocum, right, the deputy clerk, usually writes smaller checks covering school expenditures.

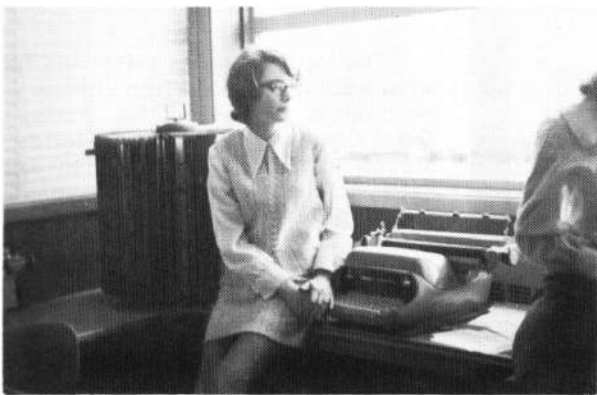

Mrs. Cox, high school secretary, wonders if she'll be able to finish her work by 4:30.

"If that mouse ever leaves, maybe we can get some work done."

"Mr. Wahl's lunch is positively not here."

"Will that bell never ring?"

"Let's run this one backward."

Special Services

Mrs. Pat Eagle was our Librarian Assistant this past year. She kept the library in good working order.

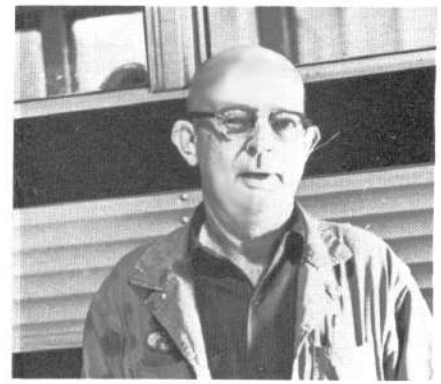

Our maids of mealtime perform their artful service. Mrs. Keeler, Lisa Parks, Carol Hunt, and Cindy Beanger make up the crew of dedicated workers striving hard each day to help us to fill cavities.

The loyal librarian ladies and lad work each day to keep your library neat and in good shape. Lisa Parks, Carol Coonrod, Jim Carbine, Jurine Moore, Mrs. Eagle, Carolyn Peterson, Patti McKenzie, and Patty Brown make up this band.

"You heard me! I, Lute Henry, keep these buses in the finest shape possible!"

Mr. Hunt wants picture taken, but Mr. Hoover, Mr. Lawrence, Mr. Hildebrand, and Mr. Mitchell have other interests.

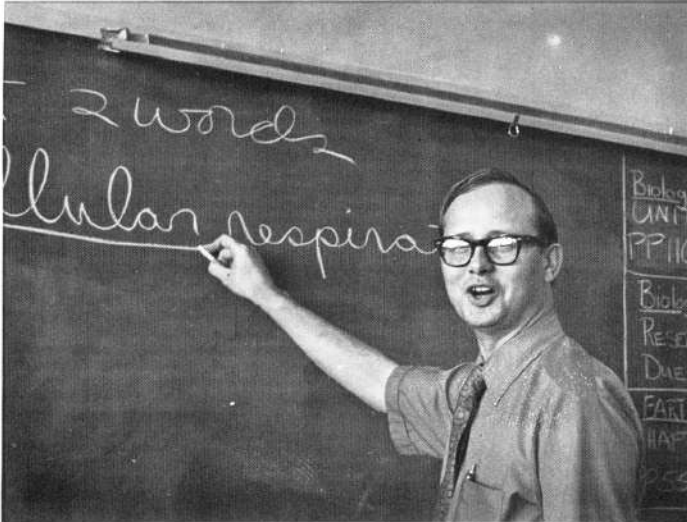

Mr. Bill Hoover is one of the custodians at our school. Here he is caught in the act of doing his work.

Larry Zitzelberger is hard at work deciding what not to do next. To him, the simple job of repairing the five district schools is just too much.

Pacific Anpahi ‘19

The annual staff met during seventh period. Fundamentals of photography and dark-room practices were taught. We tried to add a little variety and humor into this year's edition of ANPAHI. There was a lot of fun as well as a lot of work. We all hope that everyone enjoys the annual.

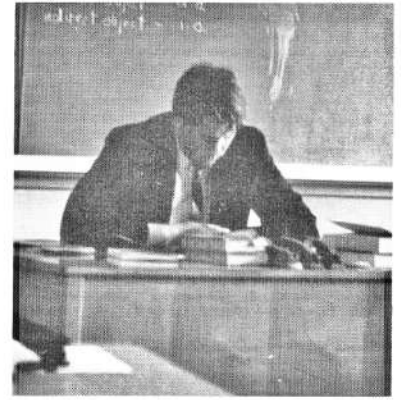

Members of the staff are Peter Kurzhal, Mark Maggiora, Steve Pattison, Connie Stevenson, and Linda Stevenson. At the beginning of the year Kathy Aldropp and Diane Hunnicutt were on the staff.

ASSEMBLIES

The "Monster Man," a Hollywood make-up artist, created some weird beings out of a few of our fellow classmen.

Mark George, a folk singer, sang some songs for us. He was a member of the Heart Fund drive and was a victim of heart disease when he was 8 years old.

The Knect family, headed by John Knect and his two sons performed for us with many gymnastics and stunts. John Jr., age 7, holds the world record in sit-ups, 18,500; and Mike, age 9, holds the world record for push-ups, 457 non-stop.

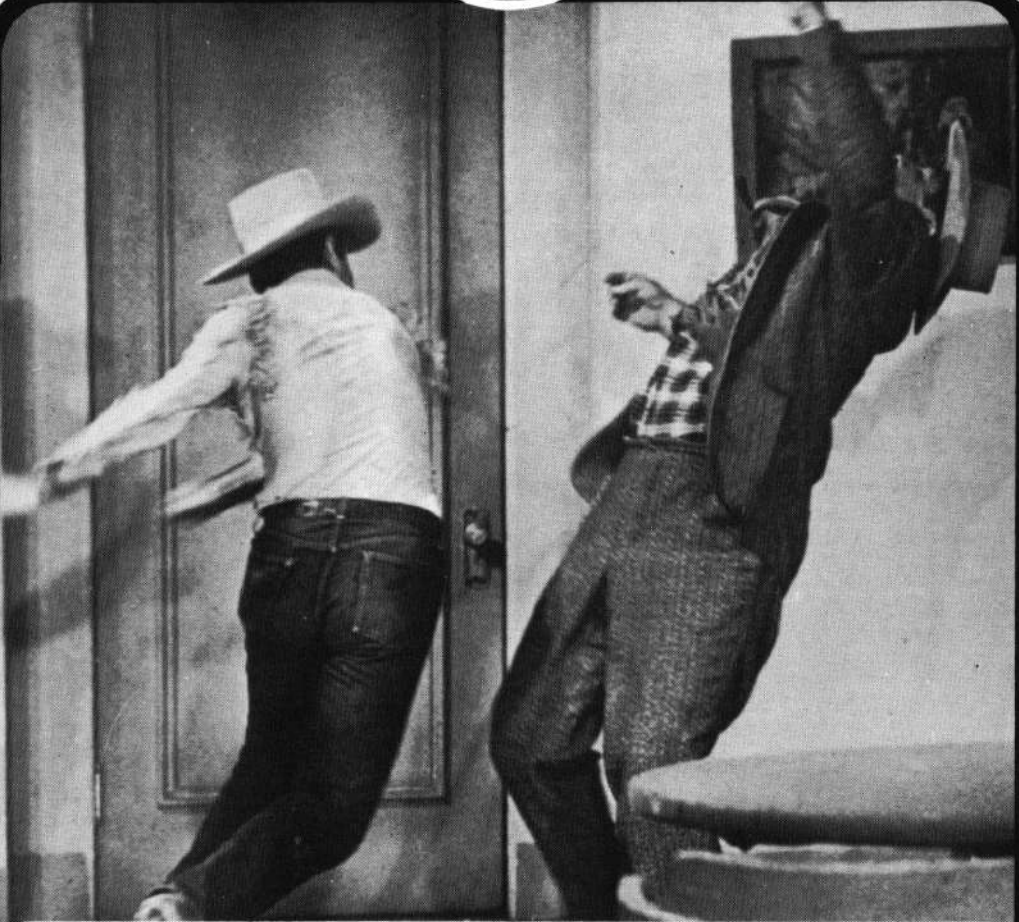

The Snake Man gave an assembly on reptiles and snakes. He had many live specimens and gave the audience a few scares.

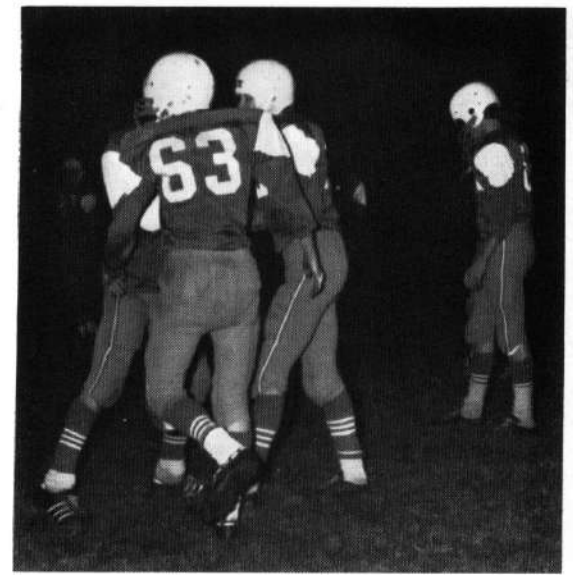

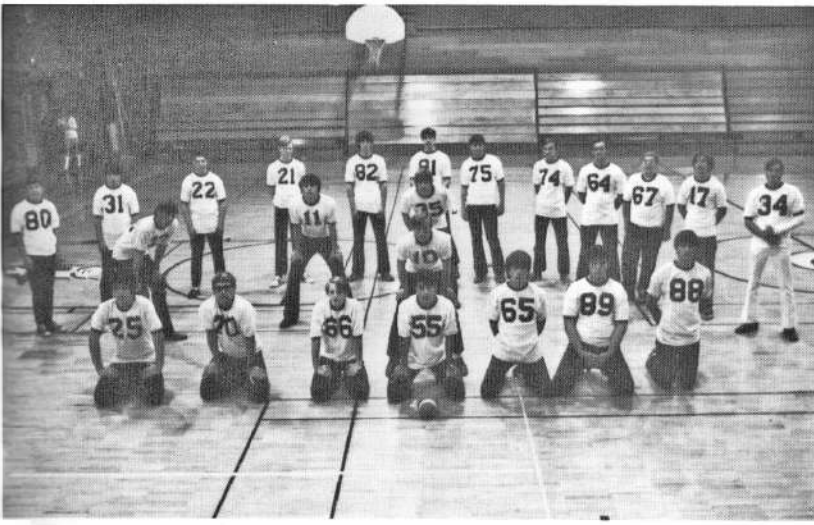

The Pulika gypsy family brought us music from Hungary. They sang and talked to us about their customs, beliefs, and religions of their tribe. Their father is a prince in the Iowaria gypsy tribe.

ACTIVITIES

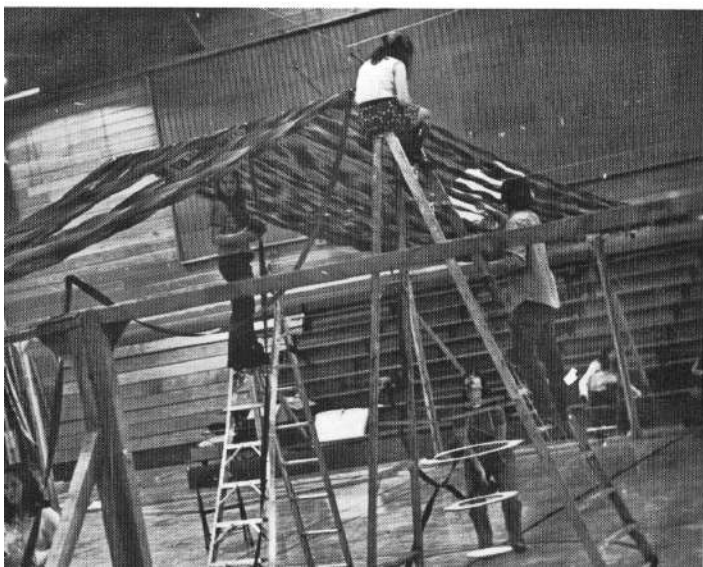

Sweethearts Ball

The Sweethearts Ball, one of the three traditional dances, was presented by the class of '75. The band, Sobroad, set the atmosphere with the typical soothing dance step.

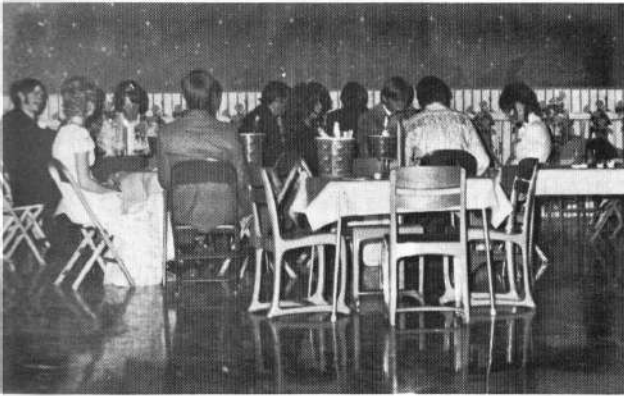

There is a lot of work that goes into preparing for the Junior-Senior Prom. Fund Raising campaigns begin in your Sophomore year. Then in your Junior year, a theme and setting are selected and necessary items ordered. Final touches are added and soon the Prom is underway.

I'll Be There

Junior Senior Prom

Vivacious as ever, Laura Marstall sets the suspense just before she was crowned Queen. John Zuppe was chosen King for the court.

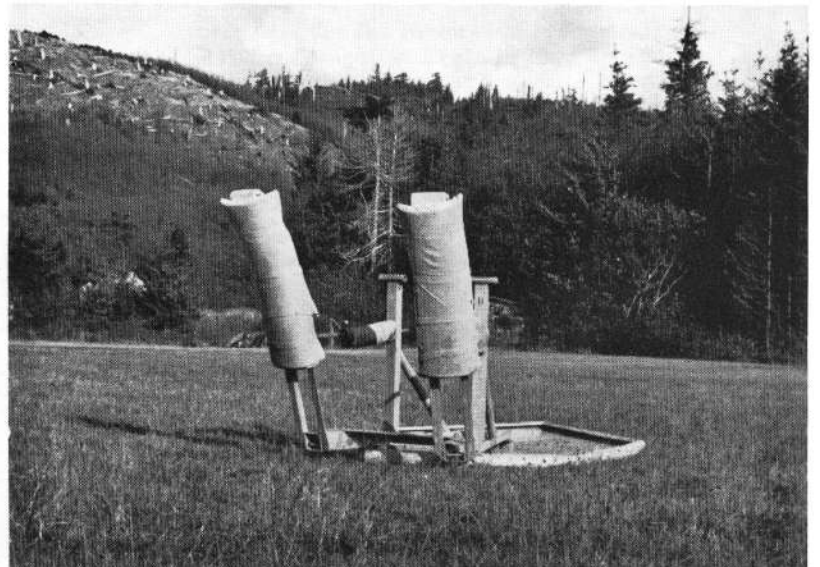

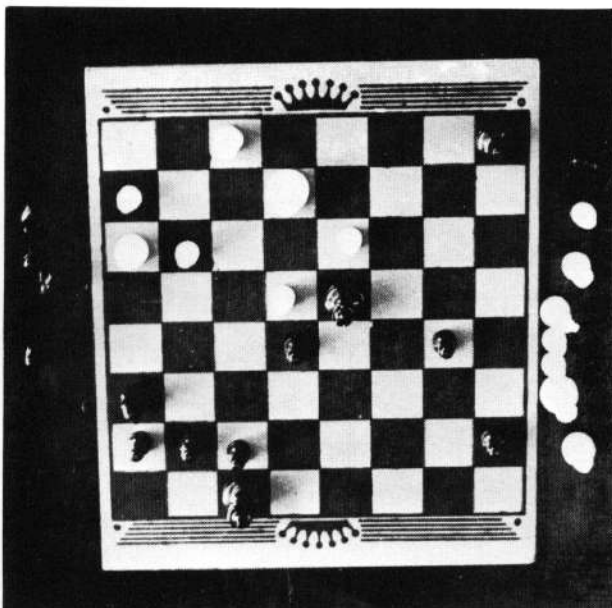

Wayne McCune and Dyan Colven, Ralph Cope and Patti McKenzie enjoy the atmosphere and decor of the Prom.

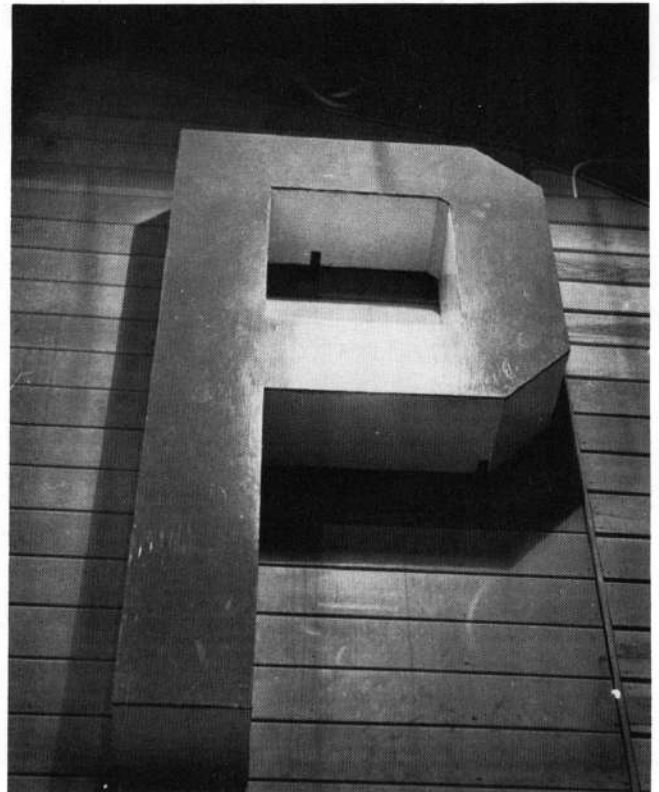

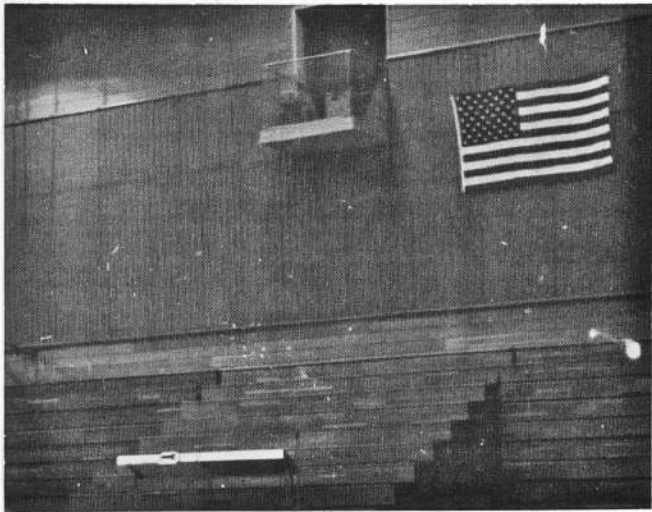

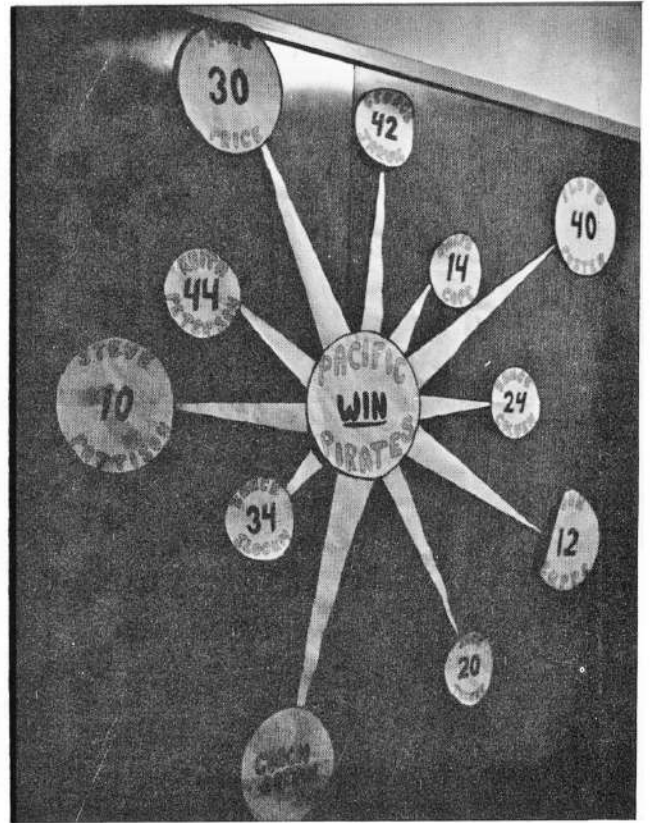

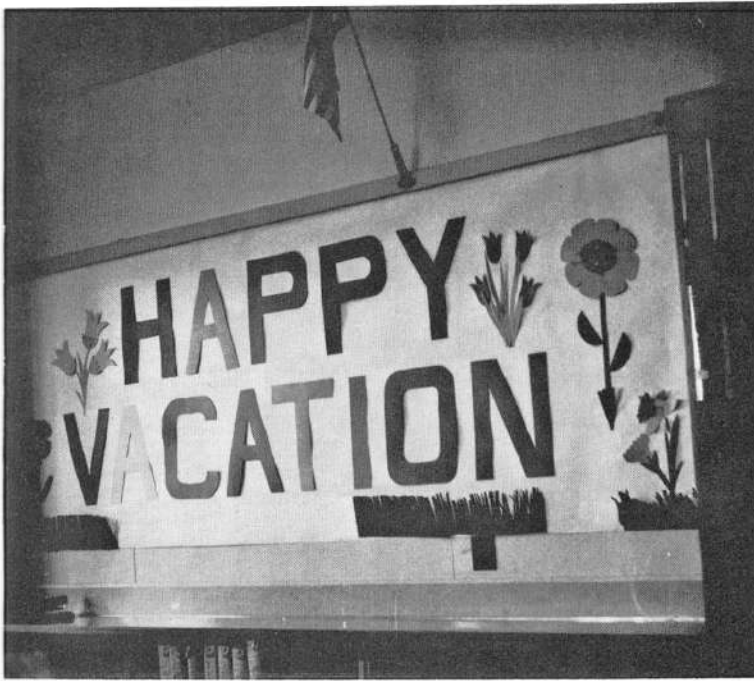

Keith Peterson and Linda Hildebrand, Rod Marstall and Paula Roberts sample the refreshments.

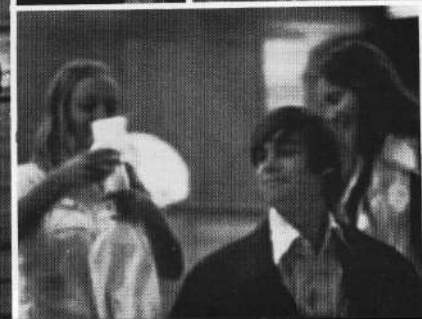

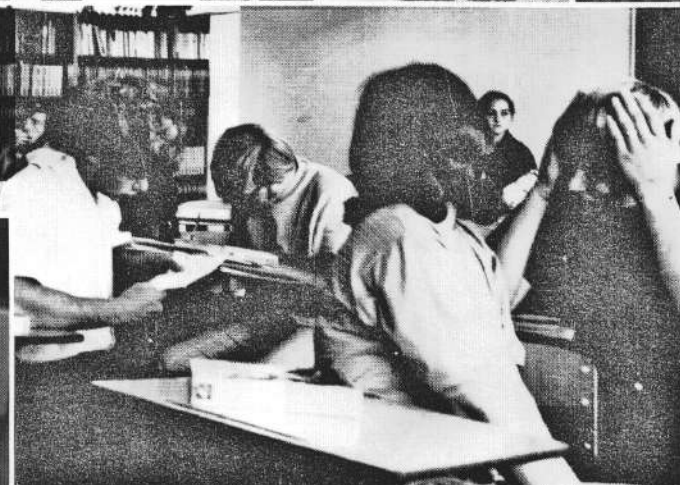

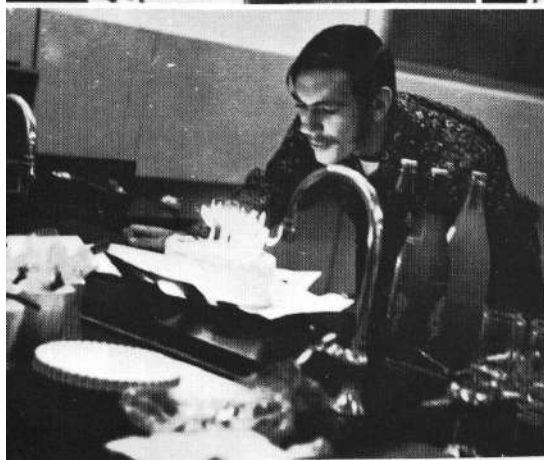

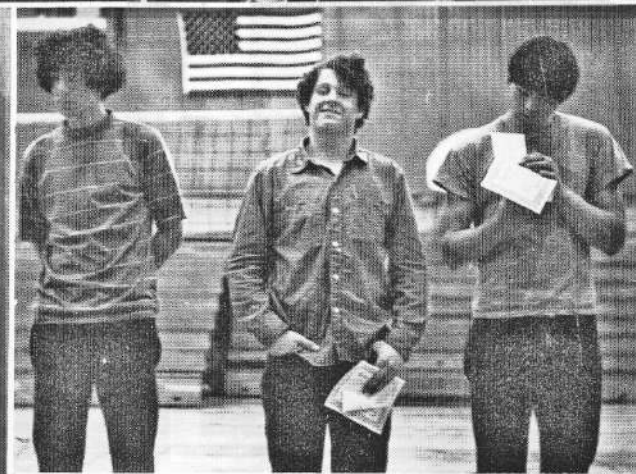

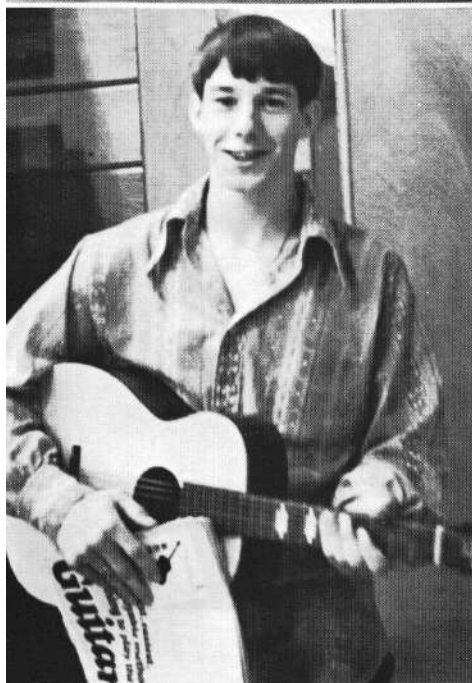

Remember?
