HOMECOMING NOISE PARADE

Keeli Kirkpatrick, Margaret Thomas, Cheryl Naiman, Joyce Geer, Loretta Kennedy, and Tara Unican enjoy their ride, while helping the Sophomores.

Randy McCune, accompanied by Ed Peterson, drives his car for the Juniors.

The 1973 Homecoming Noise Parade took place in Port Orford on September 21 at 5:00 P.M. It started at the City Hall and ended at Battle Rock Park. The Homecoming Princesses lead the parade, followed by the Seniors, then the Juniors, Sophomores and Freshman. Seniors won the noise parade for the fourth time. This has never been done before in the history of Pacific High School.

After the parade some of the students went to the bonfire where an effigy for the Yoncalla Eagles was burned. Then everybody went to the football game.

The 1973 Homecoming game was between us and Yoncalla. It was a close game and the Pirates played a real good game, but Yoncalla won 20-18.

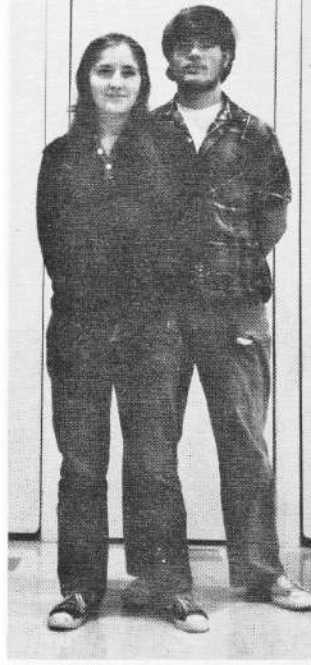

During half-time, at the football game, it was announced that the Seniors won the noise parade and Spirit Week. The Homecoming Queen and Mr. Football was also announced. Georgia Mayea was Homecoming Queen and Bruce Colven was Mr. Football.

The Homecoming Dance was held in the gym, after the game, from 10:30 to 12:30. Approximately 150 people attended the dance.

HOMECOMING GAME

The homecoming game was the most exciting game of the season. At the end of the third quarter the score was Yoncalla-20 and Pacific-12. During the fourth quarter, we held Yoncalla to sixteen yards and also made a touchdown, bringing the score to 20 to 18, but we couldn't get the extra points that would tie the game.

Brian Watjen made our first touchdown with an eight yard rush and later our third touchdown with a five yard rush. Bruce Colven made the second touchdown in a 59 yard run.

Bob Scheidemantel and Bruce Colven were cited for their outstanding defense at the end positions, and Wes Feeler was credited for playing well at the middle linebacker position.

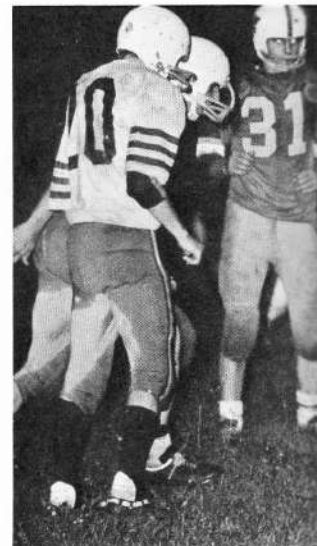

Bruce Colven led all rushers with a total of 101 yards on thirteen rushes.

Student Council this year has been both a source of controversy and an active ingredient in the school year. Criticized for lack of activity, it has found that each student's response is what makes up a good council.

The people of this year's council learned that each must take a leadership attitude and take part or we will fail in our goals.

The Sweetheart's Ball, the various school assemblies, the Welcome Dance, the Faculty-Student Basketball game, and the support of most activities were all part of this year's council.

During activity period, box lunches made by members of the NHS were auctioned off to raise money to support their foster child, Lai Cheng-Hsaing from Tai Wan.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Mr. Beckman, newspaper adviser, shows Marla Foster how to operate the stencil cutter.

Mr. Beckman and the staff have some anxious moments while getting the ECHO out every Friday.

ECHO STAFF

Mr. Beckman and the seven members of the ECHO staff made one major change during the 1973-74 school year: to print the newspaper every week rather than every two weeks. This makes the news more current and therefore of greater interest to the students and faculty of P.H.S.

Two of the ECHO staff members smile as the finished paper rolls from the machine. Everybody made their deadline.

F.H.A.

The girls below display their knack for gossiping while eating their most nourishing food.

Left; Cheryl fights Sam over rights to carry the Bean-Bag chair. Right: Cathy Moore listens to suggestions from other members.

This year the girls made a Bean-Bag chair to help pay for their projects.

FBLA

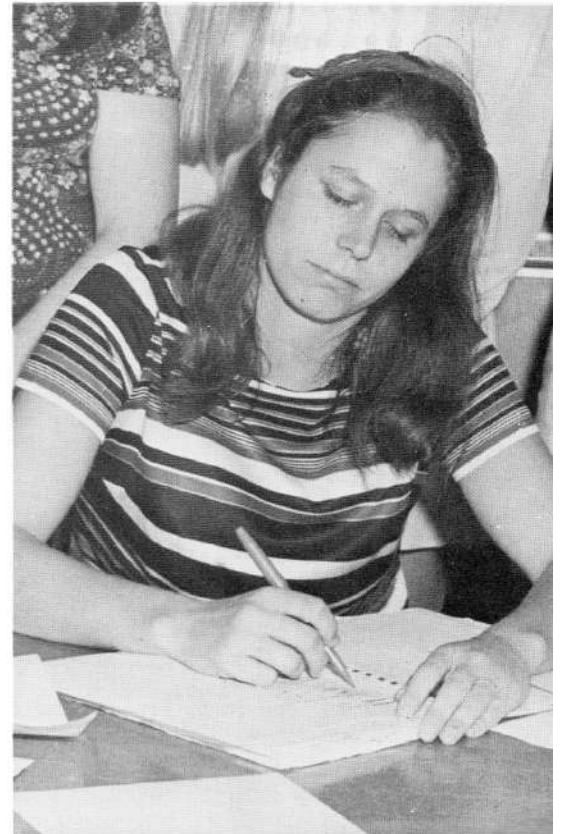

The Pacific Future Business Leaders of America Chapter has seven members. Its purpose is to promote better business practices among future business leaders.

Some of their activities include selling advertising to finance their activities of printing the Football, and Basketball rosters, and attending the state convention in Portland.

This year's convention was held on April 12-14. Local members were driven to Portland by Mrs. Barbara Sweeney. Their scrapbook was entered for judging.

The Advisor, Miss Gemeinhardt, hopes that our FBLA members will compete in the district skills competition contest during the coming year. This year's members were Vickie Nowlin, Carol Hunt, Mary Stock, Debby Sweeney, Karen Sell, Carolyn Coonrod, and Maggie Reeves.

BAND

Right, band students concentrate on their music, and practice, and practice, and practice, and then they finally get to play for the public.

We would like to thank the band for all of the effort they have put out, for attending most of the home games, and for their concerts this year.

CHORUS

Everyday, well almost everyday, from 12:46 to 1:39 the members of chorus, wet their lips, and stretch their vocal cords, and make music.

At times Mr. Lannom seems to have problems controlling "The Mob".

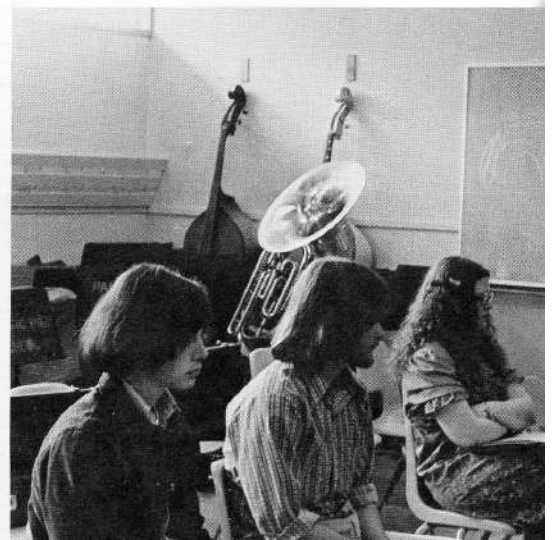

ENSEMBLE

Much of the time spent in Ensemble is in practice. Right: Three imposters give the Ensemble a taste of their own entertainment. For much of the year the Ensemble awaits the time when they lend their talent to the public ear. This year's activities included the Christmas concert, and the Spring concert.

Above: The Spanish II members that went to Mexico are From The Left: Allison English, Renee Foster, Rene' Kirkpatrick, Bob Snodgrass, and their advisor Alida Bender. They raised money to go on their trip in several different ways; they had raffles with a bike and a gun, a fiesta, and also different organizations around the community supported them.

Below: Huts like these were seen frequently up and down the beach for those that preferred shade to sun.

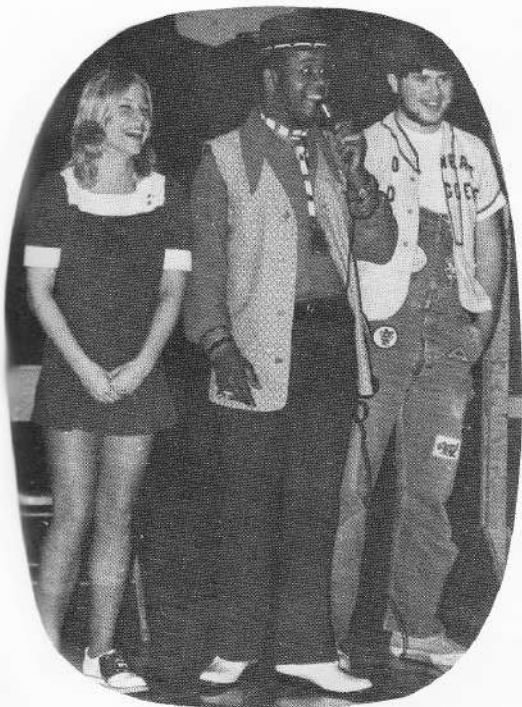

SPANISH CLUB

To The Left: For transportation around Mazatlan they rode the bus, which cost them 12 cents to go anywhere in the town. Below: The club tried out many different restaurants off of the main tourist section of town. This one is called "La Faena."

Left: ESP expert George Val George provides Alice Van Loo with an answer. He told her the person she called the most on the phone and her phone number. Alice was tickled that he could guess! Right: Claudia Pagani, from World Wild Life Safari in Winston, Oregon, accompanied by a furry mouflon lamb, showed slides of their many different kinds of animals during a national assembly.

NATIONAL ASSEMBLIES

Above: Ventriloquist Mel Bates demonstrated his talents with the assistance of Leslie English and Bob Shaffer. Right: The South Westerners from SWOCC, performed at Pacific for the student body. They performed for us last year, but since then they have added more people to their group. Everyone enjoyed them because they sang modern songs.

Maggie Reeves was chosen to represent Pacific at Girls' State, sponsored by the ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion.

In June, girls from all over the state meet for a week's study of political parties, campaigning, elections and the electoral process, and the workings of the American system of democracy.

At the end of the week, the girls elect the state's constitutional officers and two Senators to Girls' Nation.

Shelley Wilson and three other Dellenback scholars were given a one week stay with the Dellenbacks in Washington D.C. March 9-16. John Dellenback represents Oregon's 4th Congressional district in the U.S. House of Representatives.

During the week she was there she went on a sight-seeing excursion. She met congressmen, senators, staff members, and other important people in government. She also visited the Japanese and Dutch Embassies.

Shelley stated "The trip was really a farout experience. It sure did broaden my horizons. I was practically dead when I reached home, but it was worth it."

Shelley is the first person ever to win this honor from Pacific.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education has been exceptionally busy this year. They have decided to reorganize the five schools into three under the 6-6 plan, that has been discussed for many years, and that the Port Orford seventh and eighth grades will be bussed to Langlois next year, after which, if the 6-6 plan goes through, they will be at Pacific. If the 6-6 plan doesn't go through, the board will discuss other alternatives.

The board has also been talking about having someone stay in a trailer-house at Pacific, to keep an eye on the school.

Some of the things that the board does every year are voting on whether or not to pay the bills (they usually vote to pay them) this is done each month; negotiate with the teachers; hire new teachers; decide whether or not to renew teachers' contracts; make up the budget; and deal with any problems that come up during the year.

Mr. Smith, Helen Slocum, and Tom Meade clean up after a school board meeting.

Visitors Ken Hunnicutt and Dave Barklow talk to board member Floyd Chase about matters brought up at the board meeting. Tom Meade is in the background.

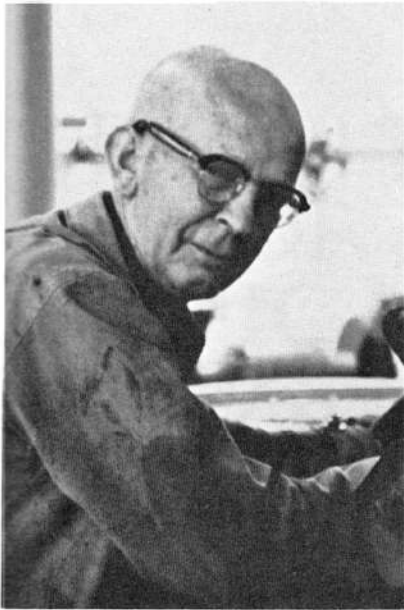

Board members Brice Wagner, Orris Smith, Chairman Roy Carr, William Loshbaugh and visitors Dick Goergen and Harold Silvermail discuss further a subject that had been before the board earlier.

School Board members William Loshbaugh, Newt Haga, Brice Wagner, Floyd Chase, Tom Meade, and Steve Miller, the district's legal advisor.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Pacific High School Cross Country Team did really well this year. First they went to Riddle for the Big Fir League meet and came in first. Then, at Roseburg, the team became the District 5 Champions. This was an improvement over last year when they came in second. The best achievement of the season was when they went on the State A meet and came in second. Last year they came in sixth.

At the end of the Cross Country season two of our team members were All-State, All-District, and All-League Cross Country runners. Two were All-District and All-League Cross Country runners, and one was an All-League Cross Country runner.

Coach Doug Orton
 Nominated for Cross Country coach of the

VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year's team consisted of, At Left Mr. Orton, number 40; Ed Peterson, 42; Steve Storm, 14; Dan Loshbaugh, 34; Don Mayea, 24; All League, 1ST String Forward Bruce Colven, 30; Dave Johnson, 44; Rich Greene, 32; Bob Sheidemantel, 22; Paul Hammerburg, 20; Bill Carr and Manager Bob Shaffar. Front: number 12; All League, 1ST String Guard, Randy McCune, and 10, Stan Allison.

Coach Orton's squad played hard this year, and for the second year in a row, came one game short of going to the State Tournament.

These players have a lot of appreciation coming. They have brought to Pacific the glorious experience of a winning season, that we all know was a rare treat before.

and the agonizing defeats

for a brief moment-we're number one

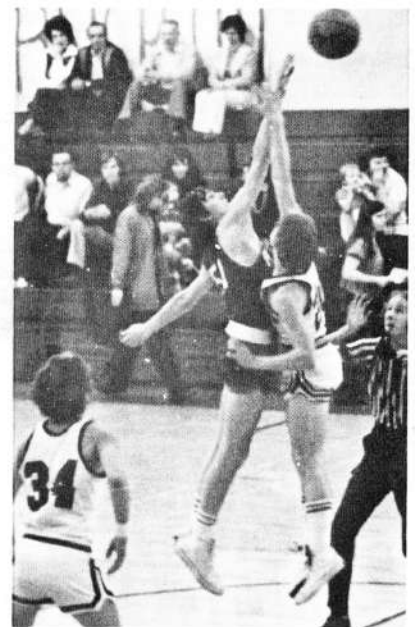

50-64, it was closer than the score indicated. A third quarter surge, a tight fullcourt press, 17 rebounds by Bruce Colven, and the whole team hustling all the time. Where did it go? An intercepted pass, blocked shots, turnovers, and of all the luck a cold night from the floor. In the grim moments of the game, our fate was sealed in the wind. Although the team played hard, although the school spirit surpassed everyone's expectations, the fact remained that we were beaten on this last final game of the season. But we will leave with a word of warning; Next year watch out.

THE BIGGEST GAME

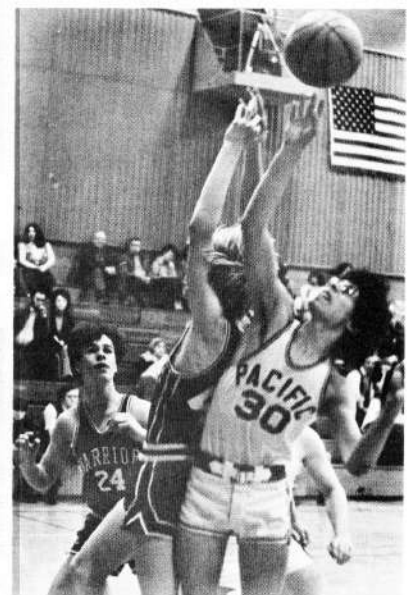

J.V. BASKETBALL

This year the Junior Varsity put together a winning season for Pacific High. They finished with an overall record of eleven wins and nine losses. Ed Peterson, captured the high scorers crown with 13.0 points per game.

The J.V.s started off on the wrong foot and lost their first five games. They broke their losing streak against Powers. They finished the season by winning the last five straight games. Bottom Vance Guinn reaches around his opponent for a lay up.

FROSH BASKETBALL

This year the Freshmen had a teacher-student coaching staff. They were Mr. Nelson and Craig Lannom.

The Freshmen did not do as well as expected; they won only one game out of twelve. Wayne Everest was high scorer for the season with 8.7 points per game.

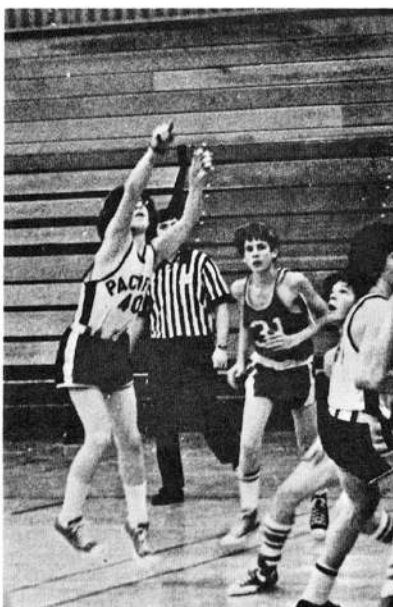

Below: Wayne Everest shows the form that scored the most points.

WRESTLING

Robert Van Loo and David House, and Don Klutz and Ken Gardner practise their wrestling techniques, while Wes Feeler looks on.

This is the first year that Pacific has had a wrestling team in three years, so this year's team was very young and inexperienced.

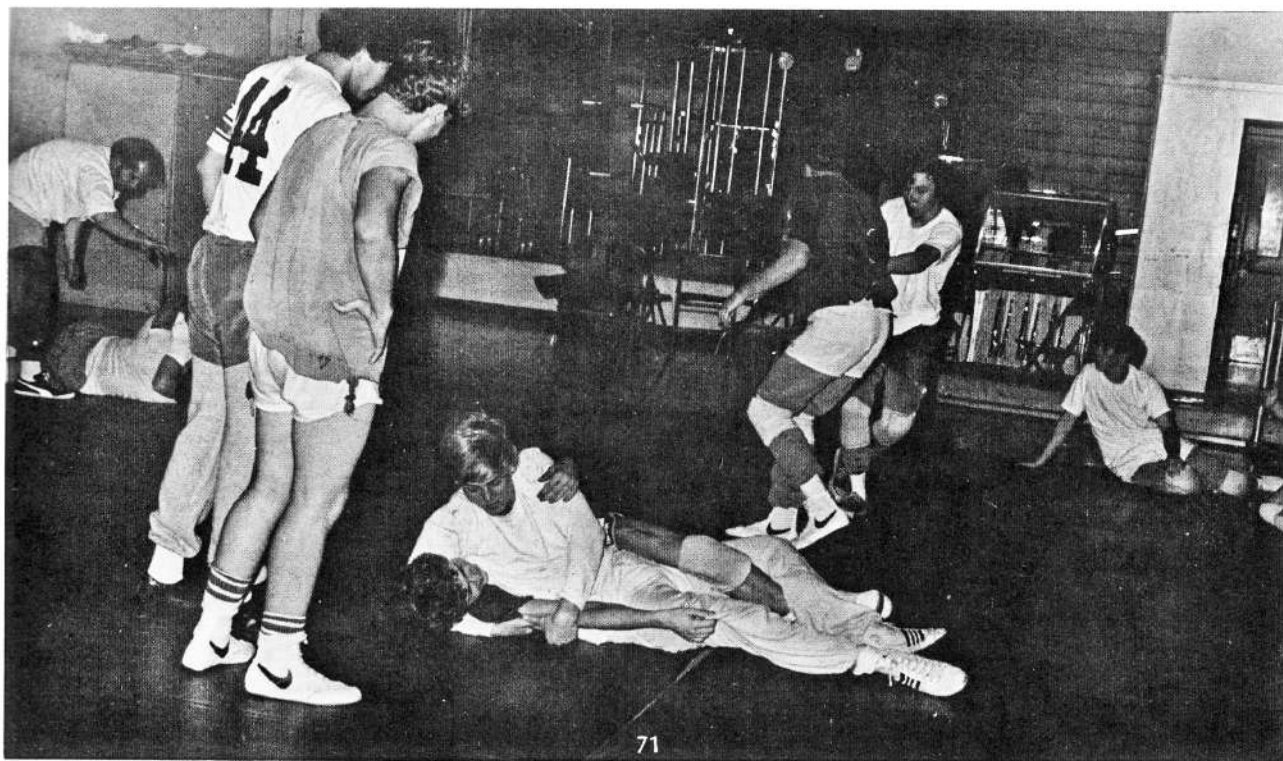

Although they didn't win any matches, the wrestlers did a real good job and kept improving throughout the season.

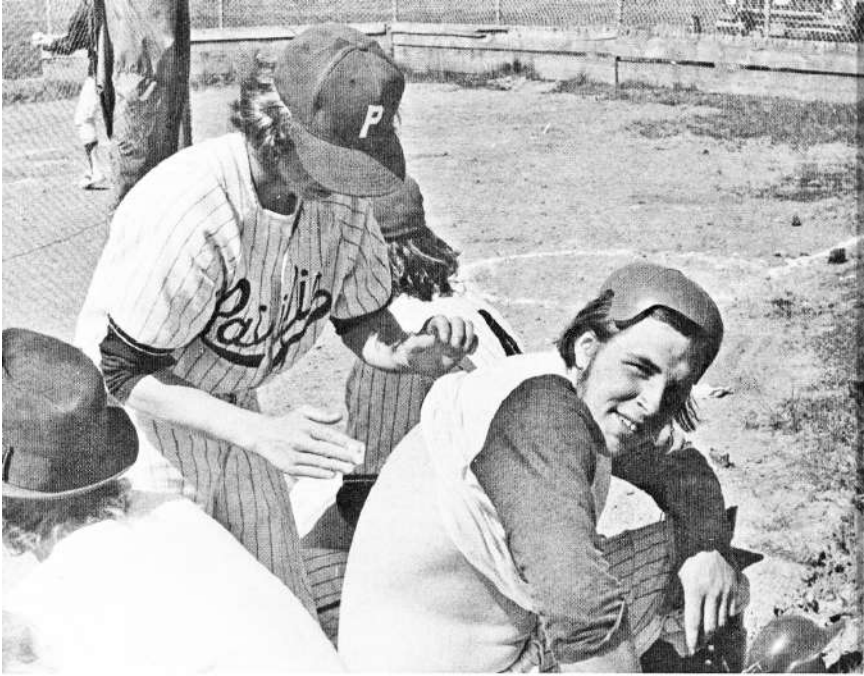

Their coach thinks that with experience they had this year they should do a lot better next year.

Some of the couples had their pictures taken by Mary Harris from the WESTERN WORLD. The night's activities were chaperoned by Mr. Hoover, Mr. Salter, Miss Gemeinhardt, and Mr. Kadelback and several parents.

The band that played for the Prom was "BREW", pictured above as they played one of their songs.

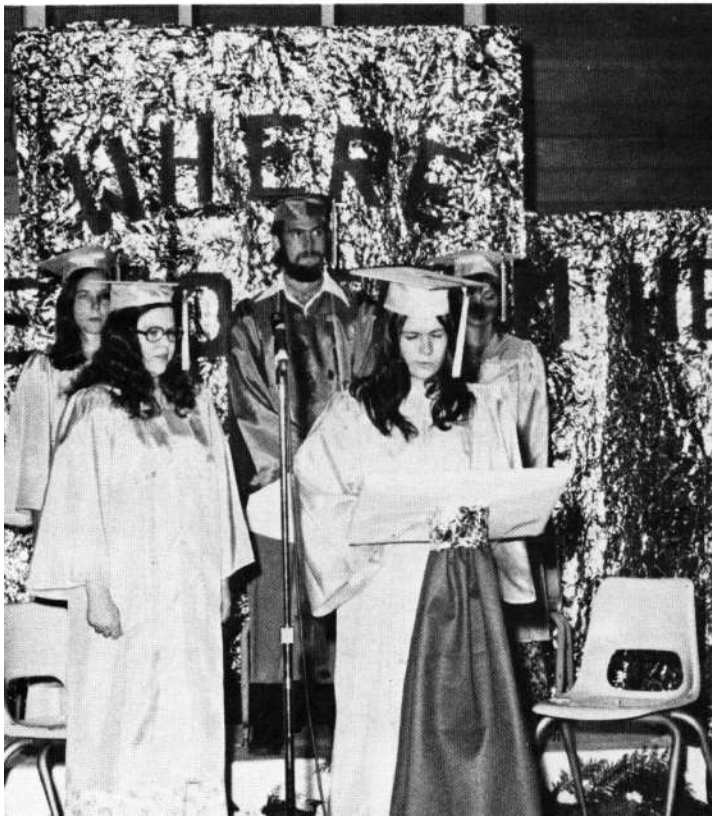

Graduates Dale Dahrens and Cathy Gardner chat in the Home Economics room.

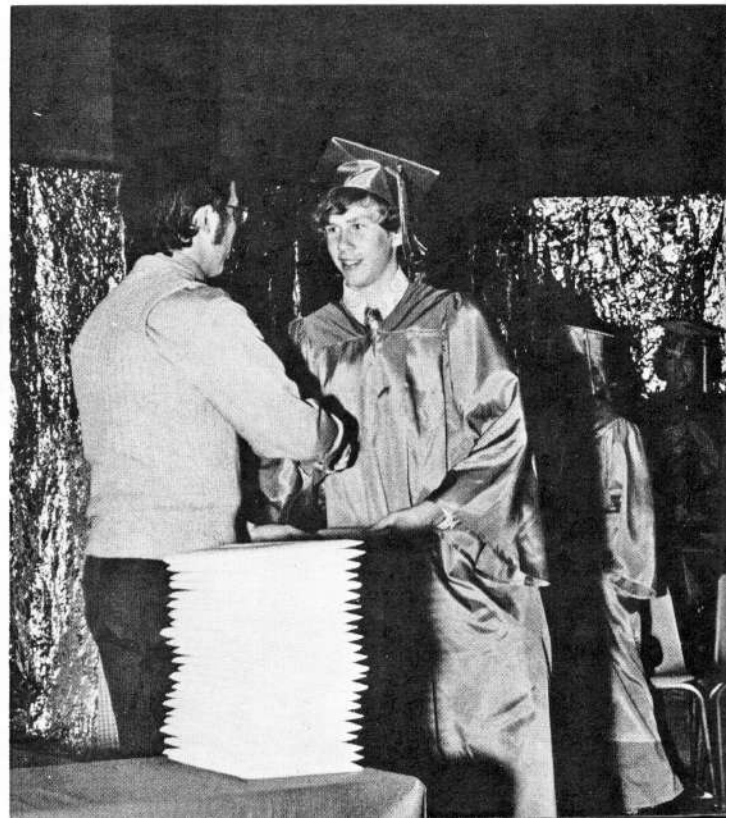

Bonnie Kreutzer irons out wrinkles while ignoring advice from fellow graduates Debbie Sweeney, Wendy Briggs, and Vicki Nowlin.

1974 COMMENCEMENT

Janet Bess gives the invocation.

Ken Rowling accepts his diploma from Doug Orton.

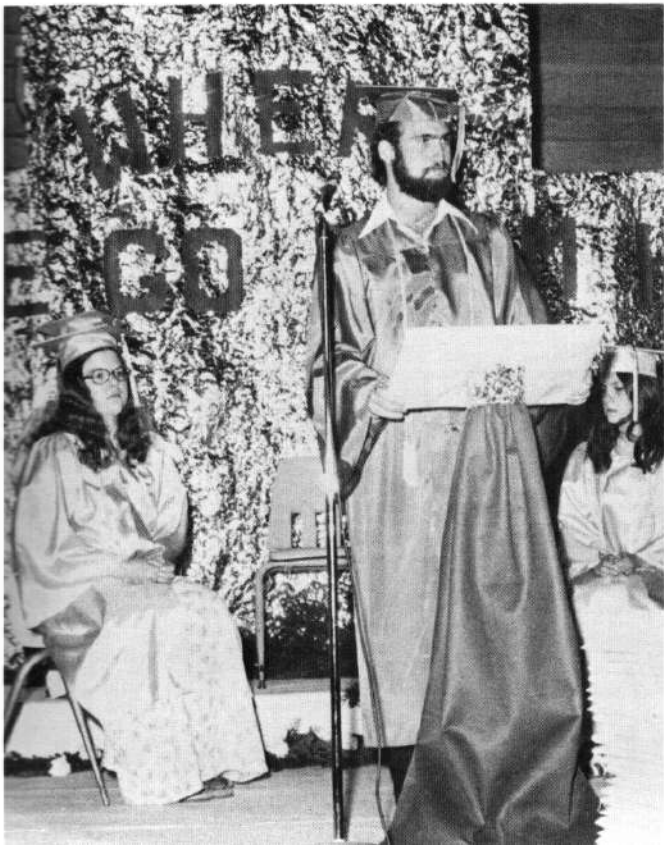

Bob Shaffar receives the congratulations of Mr. Roy Carr, Chairman of the Board of Education.

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

Salutatorian Steve Storm delivers his address.

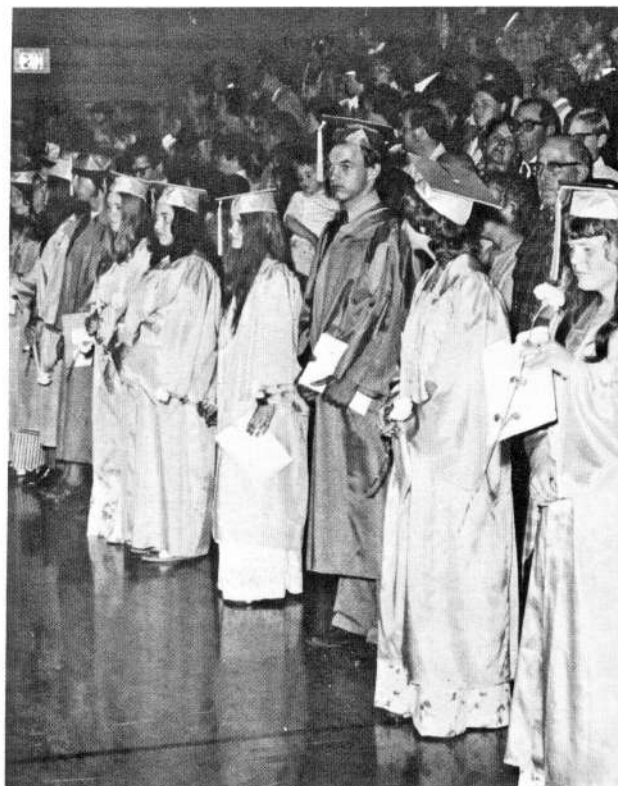

Valedictorian Janis Petok speaks for the class.

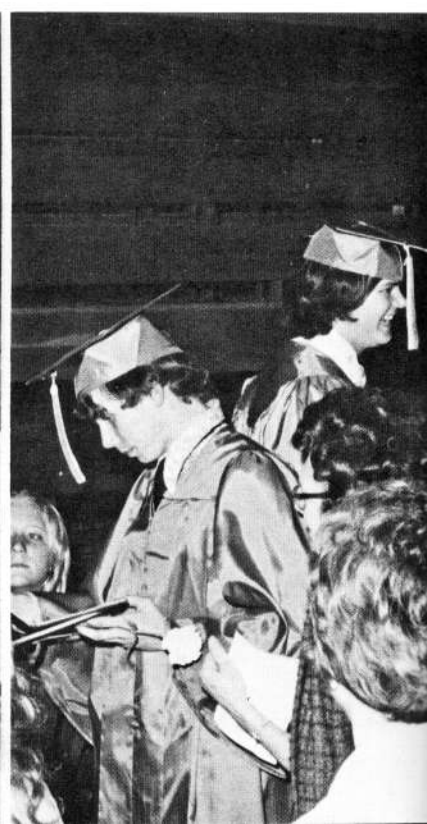

Mr. Tom Radcliffe, Commencement speaker, introduces a moment of levity.

Seniors form a receiving line as parents and friends look forlorn.
