Editor's Note

Every school year is unique, and yet, the more they change, the more they remain the same. Friendships mature, good times involve us all, and we have our good times and our disappointments.

Here are some of the things that make this year special in our minds. The football season was cancelled due to a lack of interest from our student body. Though this disappointment set back some of our spirit, we survived and for the first time we had Homecoming during basketball season. Even though we all missed football, we still had our spirit for the other sports. Going along with disappointments, the traditional first week of initiation for freshmen was cancelled, but the seniors had fun making-up the willing freshmen in the best looking freshmen contest! Once again our school has some new faces, and one of the newcomers was our Superintendent, Dr. Thomas Wood. Keeping up with changing faces, our weather didn't want to be left out, so for the first time in seven years, it finally snowed! Though we all enjoyed the snow, the weather wasn't all fun and games. On November 13th, a Friday, we had a terrible storm; with high winds (some were reported to be over 100 mph), and flooding. In this storm, there were 9 killed along our coastline. A new law passed in our state's legislature, was to have all students immunized or they couldn't finish the school year. Many of our student body have to roll up their sleeves and take a couple of shots.

Our world events haven't changed much in the past year, but we are in a worse recession than we were, due to President Reagan's budget cuts. For the small country of Poland, they had their share of heart aches. They were put in solidarity.

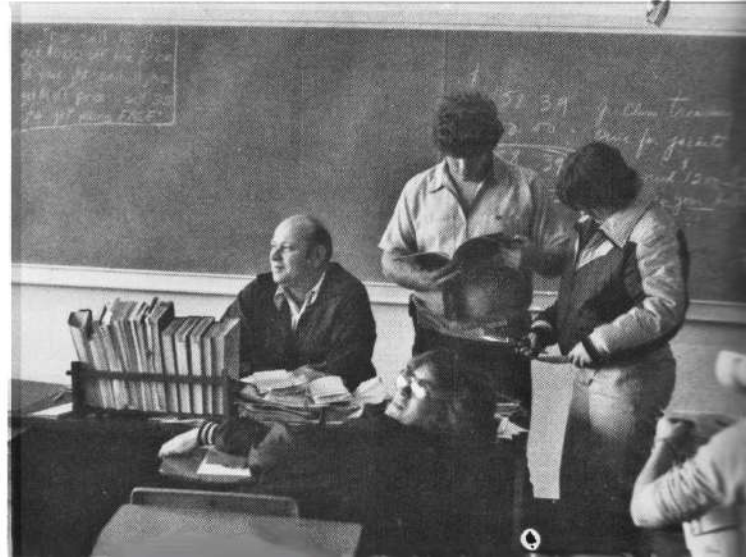

We all would like to thank Mrs. Hunt for all her help and support throughout this school year. We also appreciated all the businesses and patrons who bought ads and gave us support. Last of all we want to thank our student body for posing and letting our staff catch them in "action."

Being a Junior is: taking English III with Mr. Davis, working furiously to earn money for the Prom, being in the upper division of classes, getting lockers in the Senior Hall, taking U.S. History with Mr. Radcliffe, getting to go second in the lunch line, getting all your competencies straightened out, looking at the Freshmen and wondering "Was I ever like that?" Being a Junior this year is having only 39 people in your class, but being the best!

and only one year to go from being a SENIOR. Juniors had a hard time trying to make a successful Prom because of the absence of football money. They worked hard to try to earn money by selling Pom Pom people, having a car wash, selling key chains, and having a booth at the bazaar at Christmas. They also had cake raffles and sold popcorn and hotdogs at the concession stand during the Basketball season.

“FHA Promotes Homemaking”

This year the Future Homemakers of America have been hard at work raising money. The various projects have proved fruitful. Two dances were put on. The aroma of bake sales filled the halls. The carmel apples were a smash. A variety of things were sold from Bright and other companies. Crafts and goods were sold at the Christmas Bazaar. Some of the money raised was used to take a trip to Winston for a district meeting. They took another trip to the State FHA Convention in April.

“Outdoor Ed. Was Fun”

The Outdoor Education Leaders for 1981 went to Lobster Creek Camp from September 14 through 18th as counselors to sixth grade students. The students were from Ophir, Port Orford, and Langlois Schools. The counselor's job was to keep the kids in line and teach them classes on outdoor education. The kids learned how to study plants, animals, soil and water organisms.

Every cabin has a chore to do each day. After the chores were finished everybody went on nature hikes. At the end of the day the counselors and kids have a recreation hour. Some people swam, panned for gold, played football, or played with the parachute. Then dinner was served. After dinner and dishes were done there was a guest speaker each night. At night we all sat around the camp fire. We sang songs and the advisor, Mr. Baumann, told scary stories. The food was great and there was always lots of it. The kids were special to everyone and alot of new friendships were formed.

This years' annual class had no one who had worked on a yearbook before, but gradually we managed to put this book together.

First we planned, sold ads, decided on a cover, etc. Then we took the pictures, developed the film, and printed the pictures. Then, there was copy to write and to type, and pages to index.

These and other frustrating chores were finally completed and the 1982 yearbook was well on its way to completion.

Deb Rooks Is ASB President

This year's student council decided to dispense with the National assemblies, because they have become prohibitively expensive. The films chosen were Bonnie and Clyde, The Three Stooges, Support your Local Gunfighter, and See No Evil. They were shown in that order.

The Council also had a drive for canned food to be given to needy families during the holidays. The Jr. Class won the canned food drive.

Pirate's Echo Staff

The "Pirates Echo" staff's main purpose is to publish a school news paper. The paper is printed weekly and given out on Friday.

This year the staff has developed new covers and has made larger editions much of the time.

This year was a good year for being in this club, because we just got six new computers and several games that can be played on them. They went on an interesting field trip, which took them to several businesses. Then in May they had their annual end-of-the-year picnic down at Edison Creek.

The officers for this year were Jill Ring, President; Julie Richards, Vice-President; Marion Dallison, Ways and Means Chairman. Below left, Computer used at the Port Orford Press.

Hughes Is 1st In Talent Show

This year's talent show was held on November 20, 1981. It was presented well with twelve acts in all. There were three judges: Bette Adams, Beth Slocum, and Sam Hinkle. These judges decided on five places. Mr. Hughes got first place singing "The Lion Sleeps Tonight." Second through fifth places were as follows: Tessa Nored, Brenda Zitzelberger, Debi Bridgman and Kathy Argo, and Debbie Rooks and Wendy Felton.

P.H.S. Wrestlers Have

Bryce Barklow Goes To State

Theme For Jr.-Sr. Prom

The 1982 Jr.-Sr. Prom was held at the Thunderbird Motor Inn in Coos Bay on Saturday, April 24. It was our first DJ Prom, with music being provided by Cosmic Sight and Sound.

Half way through the prom the King and Queen were announced. They were Mike Adams and Colleen Kreutzer.

The prom was the culmination of three year's work. Junior class finances were complicated by the cancellation of the football season. They held a spaghetti feed, worked at basketball games, had a car wash and sold jackets to earn money for the prom.

Below, left, prom go-ers John Shepherd, Danielle Sredzinski, Lance Etchison, Connie Potter, Scott Etchison, David Caughell and Gina Terry. Below, right are Lance Etchison and Kathy Argo. This marks the third year that the prom has been held at the Thunderbird. Most people had dinner in the Bay Area before the prom began.

Individual outstanding performances were turned in by Sam Hinkle, Debbie Rooks, and Debi Bridgman. Most improved were Brenda Riffle, John Tate, and Bryce Barklow. Most inspirational was John Shepherd for the boys and Debi Bridgman for the girls. Most valuable athletes in track were Debbie Rooks and Sam Hinkle.

3. Agreed to provide some matching money for an all-weather track.
4. Gave the rally $500 to help with expenses.

Tessa Nored, left, and Shawn Norton, right, were Pacific High School's representatives to Girls' State and Boys' State.

This program has been sponsored by the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary for many years. It is a week's exercise in the operation of the American system of government.

Students are assigned to mythical political parties and go through the electoral process. The girls met at Williamette University and the guys at the University of Oregon.

Spring Play Is "A Summer Morning"

To avoid the hassles of another three-act play, Mr. Radcliffe and the drama students decided to do a one-act play, and to present it to the English classes at Pacific.

They also presented the play to the students at Bandon High School and Crow High School.

The play had a Spanish setting and concerned two elderly people who re-discovered each other in a city park after living apart for a lifetime.

The play cast was made up of Jerry Johnson as Juanito, Steve Simoneau as Don Gonzalo, Leah Rosson as Donna Laura, and Jessica Radcliffe as Petra.
