Remembering The School Year

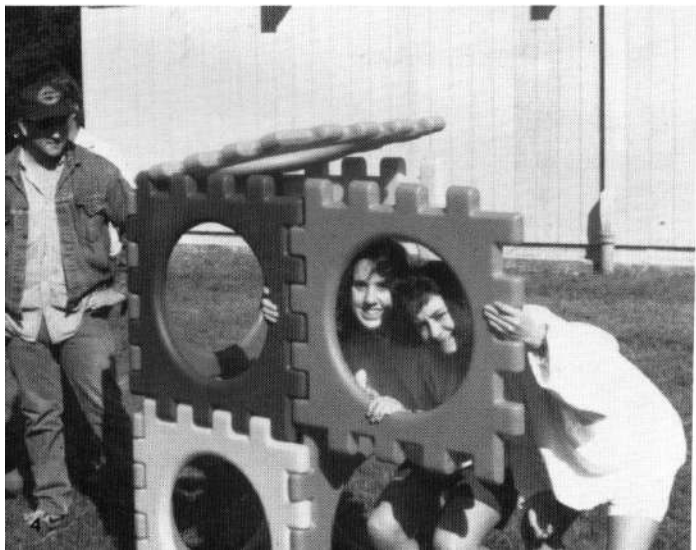

Pacific High School

Pacific High, Pacific High School,
 We will rally round and sing our
 battle cry,
 We'll fight this battle through,
 In every thing we do.
 We love and honor thee, our dear
 old High,
 We'll play for fame; we'll play for glory; and we'll play this game
 for you.
 Pacific High, Pacific High School,
 our Alma Mater true.

The 1990-91 school year started with our school district having the first modern tax base since the 19-50's. Then, Proposition five was passed in November. Also, Oregon elected the first Woman governor. The Cincinnati Reds won the world series against the Oakland Athletics. The United States and its allies entered into war against Iraq on January 15, 1991. The war ended about the first of March, 1991. During December the coldest weather in many years brought snow and below freezing temperature to the Southern Oregon Coast. It got down to 5°F on Dec. 21, an all-time low. The New York Giants won the Super Bowl against the Buffalo Bills. We had the smallest graduating class in the history of our school.

Pirate Boy

Now every Pirate boy is hard to beat;
 He's just 100 per cent from head
 to feet.
 He's got that smile, that style,
 that winning way,
 No matter where you go you'll recognize that smile and say:
 "Now there's a boy I'd like to know."
 He's got that good old Pirate pep
 and go,
 And just to look at him is quite a treat.
 It's hard to beat a Pirate boy.

Aides And Maintenance At PHS

These people make up the aides and custodians at Pacific High School. We could not possibly survive without all the hard work these employees do for us.

Mrs. Donna Owens, above, is the library aide. Besides library work, she also sells tickets to games, lunch line tickets, calls regarding attendance and runs the copy machine.

Jean Samudio, library aide, retired this year after many years with the district. She has presently announced as a candidate for the 2CJ school board.

"This year, Pacific took seven students to State FBLA competition. Five first-place awards were earned by Pacific. Volleyball and basketball teams both almost went to the playoffs."

Richard Wold is our superintendent. He has a masters degree from Western Oregon State, and has worked on a doctorate at Oregon State. Mr. Wold has two daughters and two grandchildren. He enjoys running, hunting, and fishing. Mr. Wold is standing.

District 2CJ School Board

Mr. Wold (below) in his usual office attire.

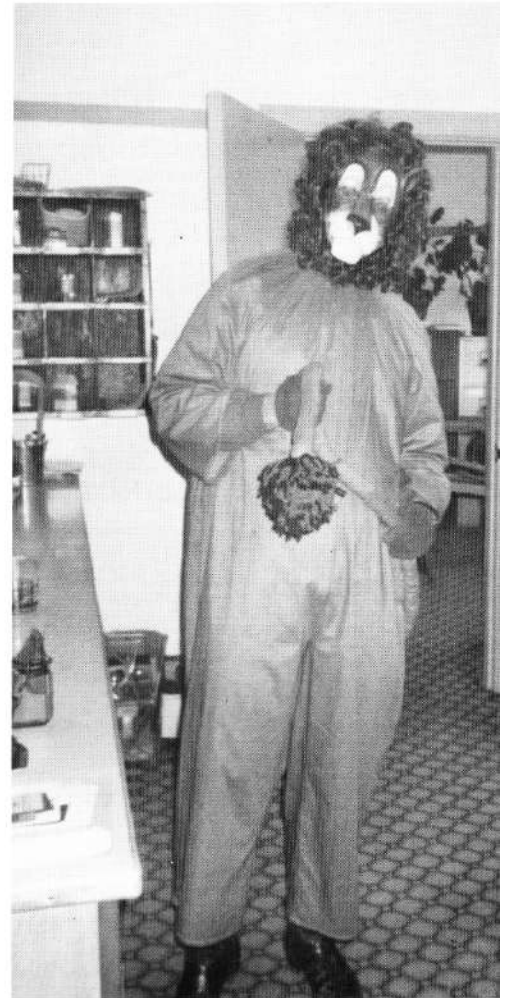

The school board of school district 2CJ has been enormously supportive of Pacific High School during the school year. Among other things they expressed appreciation to the students who represented us so well at Skills Day at SWOCC in Coos Bay.

They also approved the plans put forth by the Prom Committee to hold the Prom on May 4th at the Barn in Bandon.

They have spent endless hours wrestling with laws, finances, and a myriad of other school-related activities.

This year the voters decided to choose the 7 members "at large" rather by districts, as in the past.

Rory Robison is the student representative to the school board.

Classes

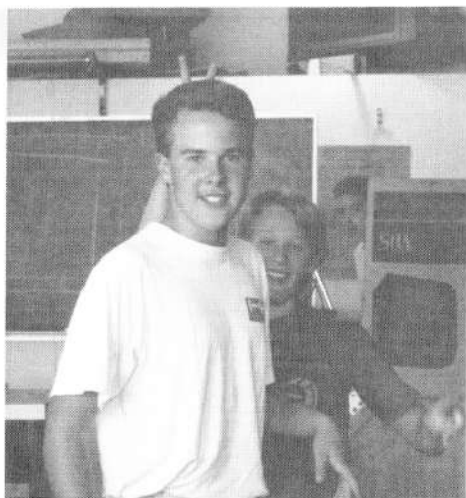

Unity

Sundara Brookshier, Kris Gore, Shelley Pendergrass, Jamie Knight, and Pete Legg take advantage of a moment of underclassmen closeness.

Underclassmen Add Pizazz!

During the 1990-91 school year, the numbers of underclassmen have increased greatly. There are many duties for underclassmen to accomplish. As a freshmen, you are involved in the Sweetheart's Ball, J.V. Sports, and waiting in line behind upperclassmen. Sophomores start off the year with the Sadie Hawkins Dance, and the climb up the mountain to paint the "P". The sophomores then begin to think about money-making activities for the prom. During students' third year, they are usually into varsity sports, get their driver's licenses, and turn their attention toward the Prom. These are some of the major activities pushing underclassmen towards the final year in high school.

New Faces At P.H.S.

Reflections On The Class Of '94.

So you've finally made it to the big time, have you?

We remember what it was like to come from being "top dog" in the middle school to being an unworthy little nobody at P.H.S. Despite the fact that initiation hazing is no longer permitted by the faculty, there are subtle ways the upper classmen use to remind you that you are newcomers.

The activity in front of the concession stand can be vicious. No contact sport even caused more injury to body and pride.

You haven't always been welcome in the Senior Hall. You've been man-handled in all activity classes. Your opinion and observations are all but disregarded as if your brain had atrophied.

You were often at the end of the lunch line-Crumbs for the Crumbs.

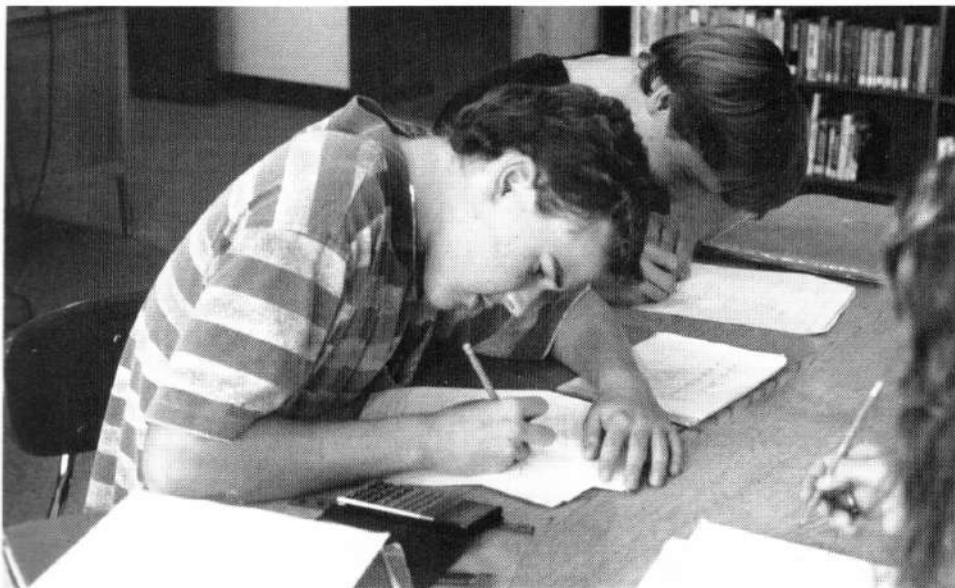

You were on rare occasion unceremoniously deposited in your own locker, only to hear the ominous click as the door closed. Eventually, you were freed.

You suffered the trauma of new teachers, new classes, and new frustrations too numerous to mention.

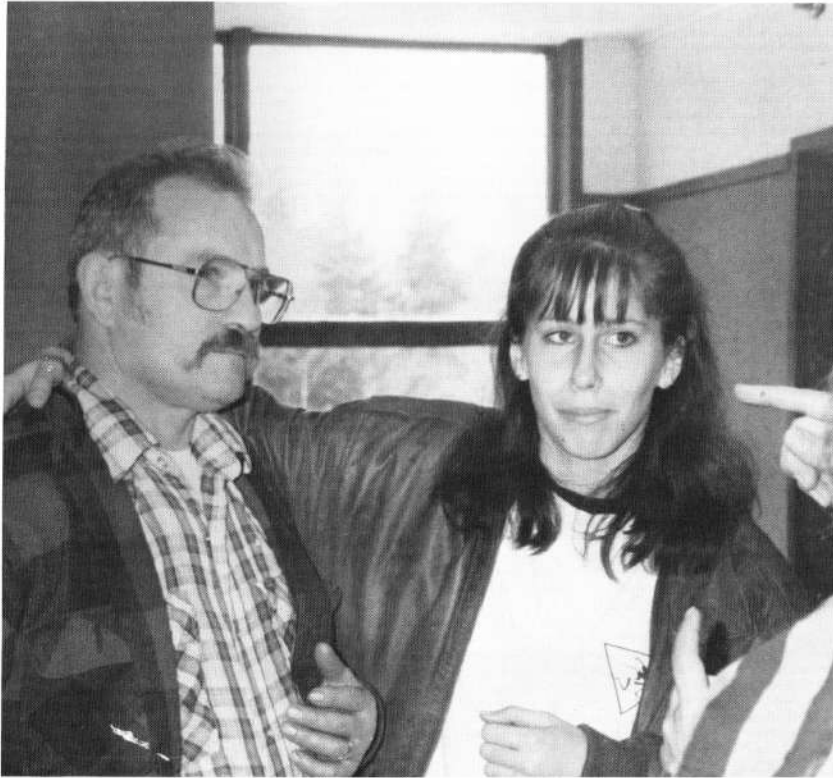

You were freshmen, but you lived through it, and in the future you can help put other freshmen classes through their paces. It is part of you rite of passage on a P.H.S. student.

Class Of 1992

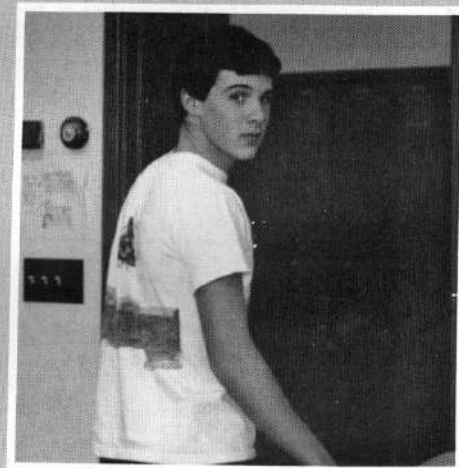

Juniors, like most other students, face many dilemmas in the mornings: girls have to decide what to wear, and how to fix their hair, while boys just gobble down their breakfast and throw on their clothes. Some have the luxury of deciding whether to drive, to ride with friends, or ride the "yellow banana" to school.

Arriving at the "hallowed halls of learning", they check out the library and the heaters for the latest exchange of gossip. A few students reluctantly get books from their lockers to finish homework and be prepared for their morning classes.

Some mental images indelibly etched in our brains include bottle drives, the Christmas bazaar, working in the concession stand, raffles, the Pig Bowl, the Prom, English III, U.S. history, and Careers/government.

One of their claims to fame is having the most money ever earned in the history of the high school, and having sweet dreams about how they are going to enjoy spending it.

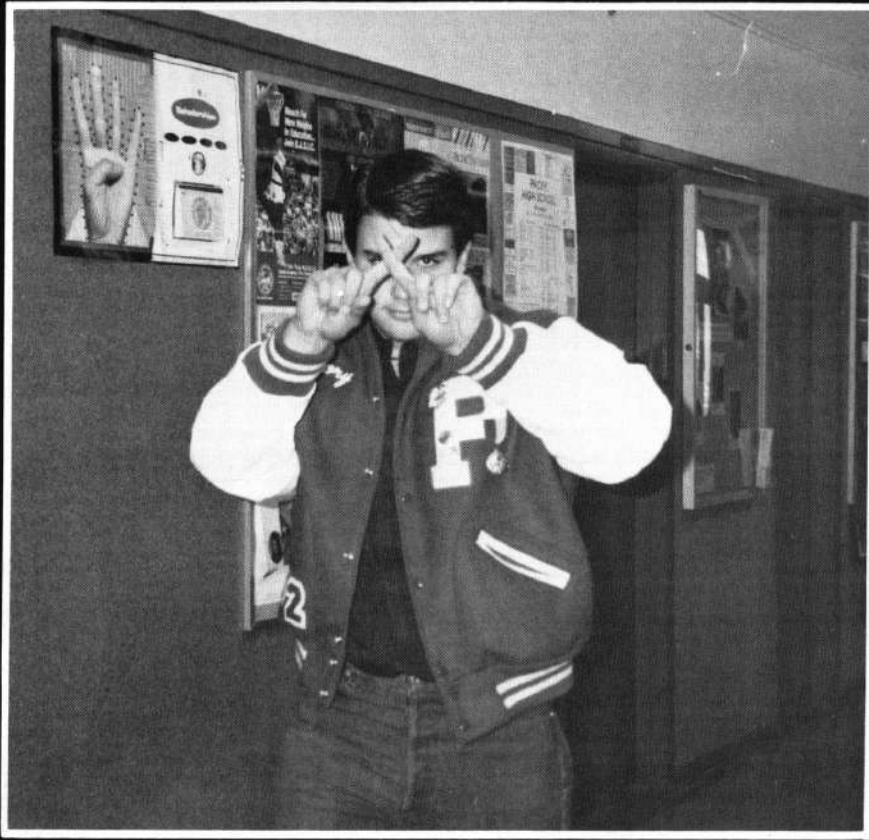

Josh McDermott, Kris Gore, and Nate Madison get into the Christmas spirit.

Organizations

Unity

Jeff Knapp and Paul Sabin, members of the Computer Club, try hard to find the one microchip that has gone bad. Many students here at P.H.S. get involved. There are many organizations and clubs available to join. Students show their spirit and pride as they apply themselves to the activities sponsored by the clubs.

This year's Student Council held a Welcome Dance shortly after this school year began. They also held a Big Fir League Leadership Conference in Port Orford at the City Hall.

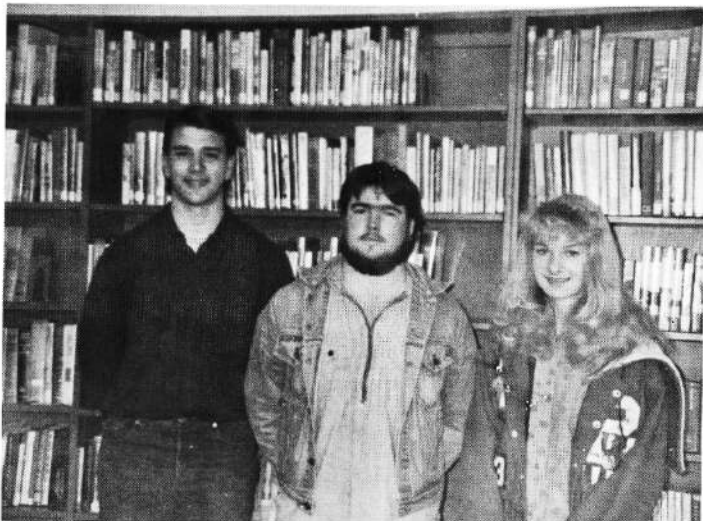

This year's officers are President, Eric Van Wormer; vice President Rory Robison; and Secretary-Treasurer, Jennifer Cox.

According to the Constitution of Pacific High School, the council is made up of the following:

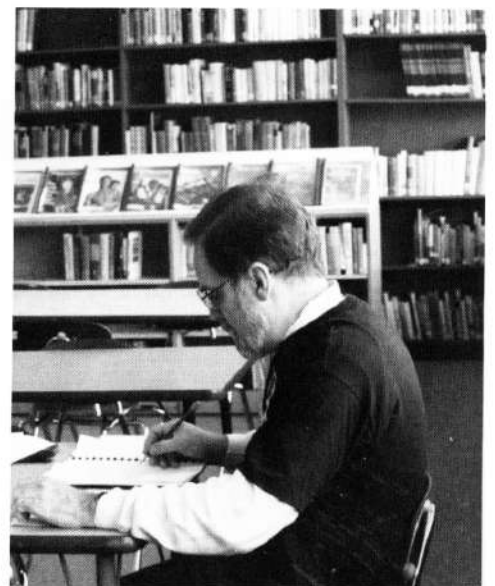

(a) President, Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer of Student Body, Representative of the Rally Squad, and the Representative of the Band and Choir. (b) The Presidents of the four classes. (c) The President of all clubs. (d) Representatives from each class. (e) Editor of annual and school newspaper. (f) Any student may attend a Student Council meeting if it is first cleared by his/her instructor. That student may discuss issues, but cannot vote.

Those appointed and elected shall hold offices only one school year unless re-elected or appointed.

National Honor Society

N.H.S. officers Josh McDermott and Shelley Pendergrass.

The National Honor Society is composed of those students who maintain a 3.00 grade point average or above for 3 consecutive semesters. So, the first time a Pacific High student is eligible to join is during the second semester of the sophomore year.

This year's officers are President Josh McDermott; Vice-President Tom Lee; and Secretary/Treasurer, Shelley Pendergrass.

They were inactive during the school year.

Success, Fun Achieved As

This year FBLA was highlighted by the extraordinary performance of members at District competition in early March.

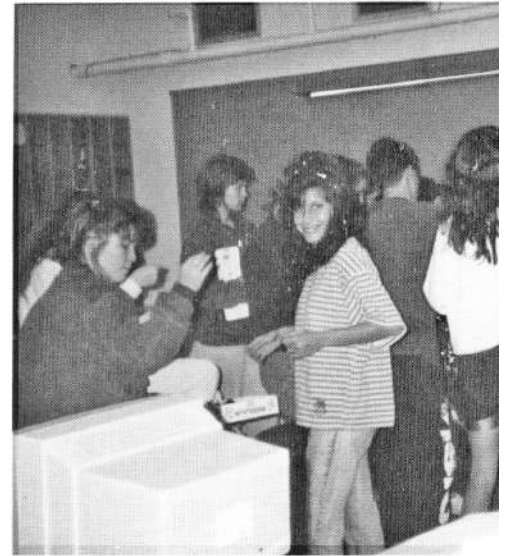

Seven people are going to Portland to compete at the State level, then possibly to the National Convention in Los Angeles, California.

FBLA has been busy with fundraisers the entire year. Numerous bake sales, a Valentine's Day carnation sale, and basketball game with the proceeds going towards food basket for Thanksgiving were sponsored by the club. A Christmas party was also held and was enjoyed by all.

Bits And Bytes: Computer Club

Jeff Knapp is testing the robot that the Computer Club assembled.

Franklin Waterman and Tom Lee concentrate on how to help their robot function better.

The Pacific High School Computer Club consists of 11 students. The students not pictured are Jason Bodewig, Jeremiah Cassel, Jennifer Cox, Shelley Pendergrass, David Pritchard, and Paul Sabin. Their advisor is Paul Young.

To reduce the costs for materials, they were in charge of the concession stand during the Soccer season, and held a cake raffle during a basketball game. The students in the Computer Club spend most of their time on making programs, constructing robots, and going over and over programs, making sure they run perfectly.

During mid April five lucky Computer Club members will be traveling to OIT in Klamath Falls, Oregon. While there, they will be competing against other schools in Computer Programming, etc.

Josh McDermott and Mike Michaelson demonstrate to the photographer how they make a program.

Pacific 1990-91 Anpahi Staff

Putting together a yearbook is one of the hardest — and most satisfying — jobs high school students can do.

This year's job was made more difficult because only three students made up the staff: Kari Hodge, editor; Karen Martin, and Molly Reese. Their advisor was Mr. Davis.

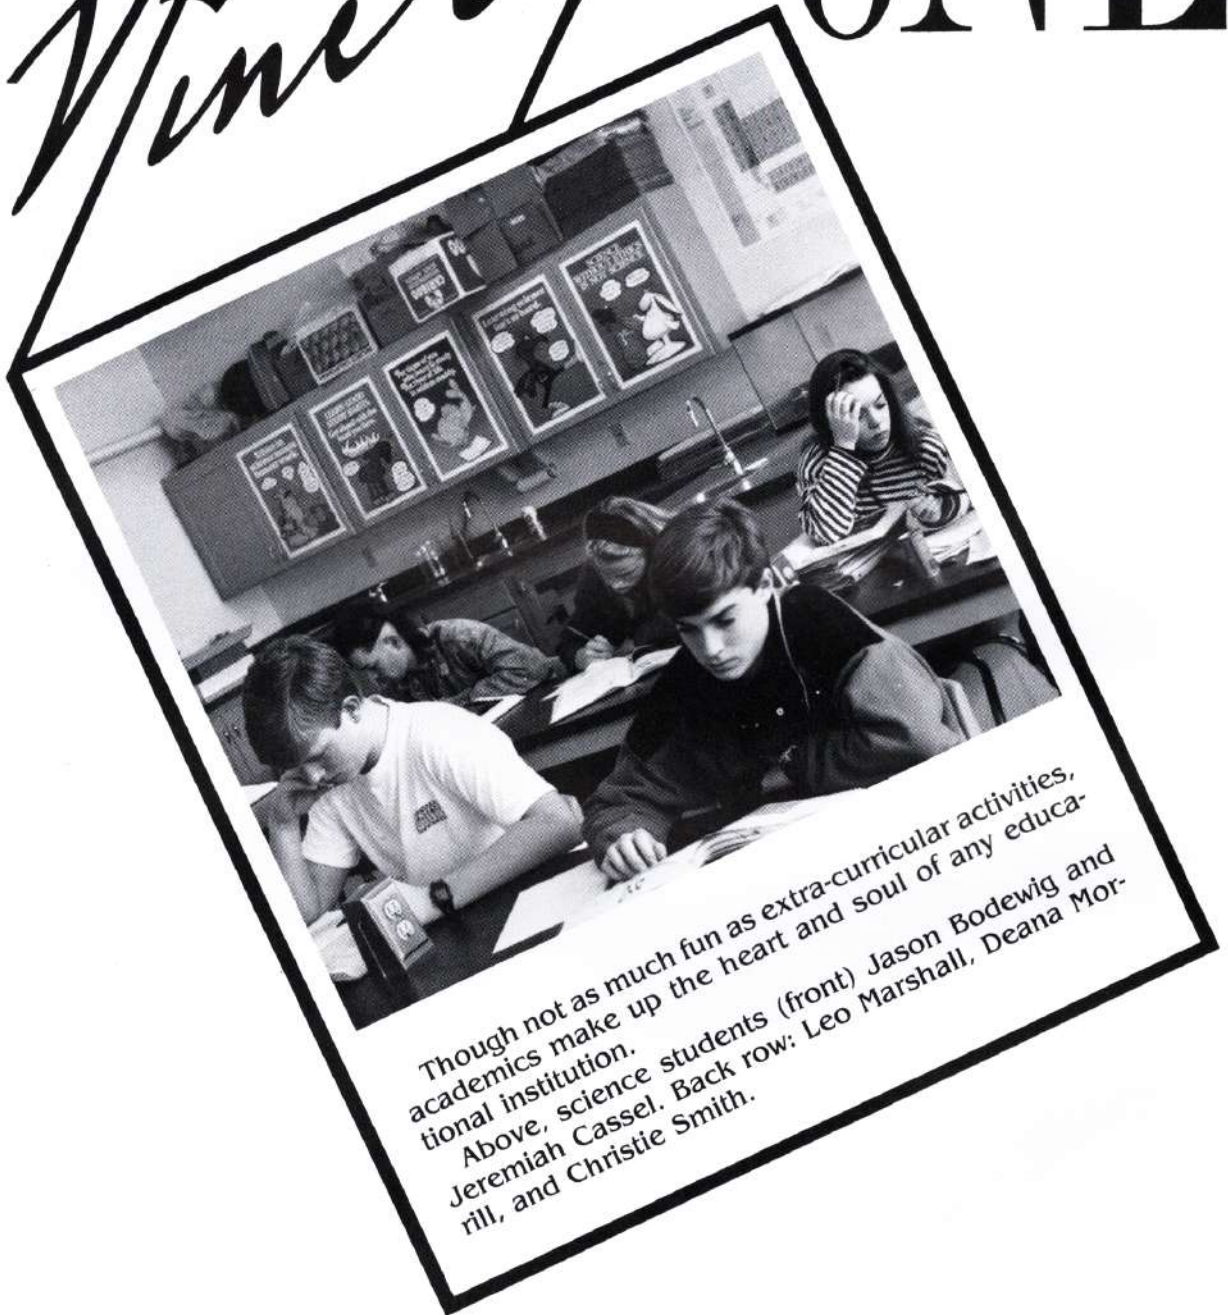

The class took all the pictures, but sent some out for developing and printing. They wrote all the copy, as well as doing the layouts and selling advertising. The staff is pictured here at the Hughes House and working in the classroom.

Memories

The soft music, and lights low
Our last dance with friends we know.
The merry voices and spirits light
Overflow the sorrow with fun tonight.
May God help you keep the courage of the quest
And hope the road's last turn will be the best.
And when the night has ended
Only a memory will last
Of the glorious evening past.

Couples entering the building in their formals wait patiently in line to sign up for pictures.

The Junior-Senior Prom of 1991 was held at the Barn in Bandon on Saturday evening, May 4. The theme for the Prom was "Without You." Romeo Sound Production from Portland deejayed the dance. People who attended the Prom received garters, memory books, and glasses as favors. Unleashed, a band from Coquille, provided supplemental music.

Dance The Night Away

Royalty of the 1990-91 Junior-Senior Prom were Queen Dena Owens, and King Gabe Hill.

Ushers for the Junior-Senior Prom were Molly Resse, Jesse Hall, and Maria Belmont.

Soccer Begun At PHS

Eager Team Coached By Father Karath

This year P.H.S. had a high school soccer team for the first time. Their coach was Father Karath from Bandon.

The team played 10 games, winning 7 and losing 3. Their opponents were Brookings, Marshfield, Sutherlin, Churchill and Sheldon. There will be league play during the 91-92 school year.

Josh McDermott scored the most goals during the season. The following awards were given: Most Valuable: Josh McDermott and John Legg; Most Inspirational: Jesse Hall and Pat Cox; Most Improved: Nate Madison and Zack Beck.

Following is the text of Coach Gore's remarks on the basketball season delivered at the dessert awards banquet:

"5 wins and 9 loses - not the best record in the league but one I'm very proud of. Last summer more than one person, who should have known better, told me I should cancel the varsity schedule and have a JV team only. I was almost talked into it, but when I asked a couple of the players what they thought, they said "We would rather lose playing varsity than play an easier schedule and win."

"Well, that was good enough for me - although after our pre-season games I had my doubts. We had only 6 players with any experience at all and most of that was JV.

It took a lot of hard work, but the last 3 or 4 games this year I'm proud to say we had 9 varsity level players on this team."

This year the baseball team experienced a rough season. Many games were cancelled due to the weather, and the final week of games were cancelled because there were only eight players on the team. Bob Lemerande, a teacher at the junior high, had his first experience of coaching Pacific's baseball team. For each game Trisha Linder and Molly Reese kept the scorebook. The team ended the season with 1 win and 12 losses against both league and non-league teams.

Shakespeare In Ashland

Getting ready to leave P.H.S. for Ashland.

Ten lucky students, accompanied by Mr. Davis, Mrs. Pritchard, and Mrs. Samudio attended the Oregon Shakespearean Festival in Ashland on April 23-25. Mrs. Brown drove the bus and the group stayed at the Timbers Motel.

The Merchant of Venice was the first play they saw at the Bowmar Theatre. The second afternoon they saw Other People's Money, a modern play about Wall Street greed during the 1980's.

On that evening they went shopping in the Rogue Valley Mall in Medford, had dinner there, and saw a movie. After spending the next morning in historic Jacksonville, the group had lunch in Grants Pass before returning to the coast.

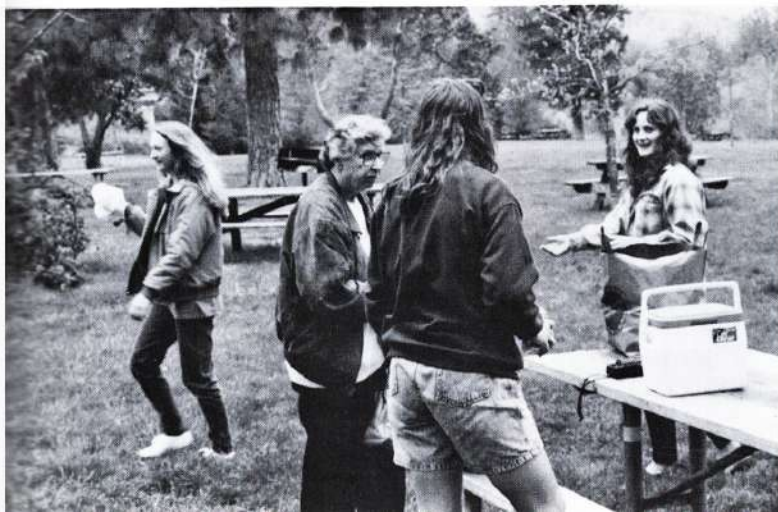

Most of the group found the trip interesting and enjoyable.
